Geneva, 7 March 2024 – The Geneva-based asset management group NS PARTNERS has been named winner in the "Fund Selection/Asset Allocation Offering" and "Manager with international Offices outside of Switzerland" categories. Presented last night in Zurich at a gala evening attended by the industry's crème de la crème, these awards recognize Switzerland's best independent asset management companies. They were selected after a rigorous process by a panel of recognized experts. The independent jury comprises specialist consultants, representatives of custodian banks and technology solution providers, as well as other industry figures.

As for the trophy in the "Fund Selection/Asset Allocation Offering" category, the jury felt that NS PARTNERS had been able to evolve and adapt to changes in the market and regulatory environment over several decades, while maintaining a high quality of service. The judges were impressed by the company's strong "family culture" and its ability to reinvent its business models to meet customer needs.

Angel Sanz, Member of the Executive Committee, said: "We are extremely honoured by these accolades, which are a real recognition from the professionals in our industry. 60 years ago, we practically invented fund selection and multi-manager investing. Today, with CHF 11 billion under management, that same pioneering spirit still drives us to constantly seek out the best solutions for our clients."
